

DENVER ANNUNCIATION

Director

Janus International

Denver Annunciation is a second-generation entrepreneur with two decades of experience in the packaging industry. His company Janus International Pvt. Ltd. was engaged primarily in the manufacturing of wet glue & beer labels. Their foray into Digital printing was spearheaded by him 11 years ago and his was the first company in India to invest in an industrial digital press.

Today, because of digital they convert labels, cartons, IML, shrink sleeves, pouches, laminates and digital enabled print solutions. The industries they cater to, have expanded from Beer to Food, Wine, Industrial, Cosmetics, FMCG, Pharma, Lubricants and Security applications.

After gaining experience in all areas of the business, his major focus is on strategizing and capability building of his organization. He invests a significant amount of time in enabling Small and Medium Enterprises to develop world class packaging for their products. “From Packaging Design to Market” is the current capability building endeavor being undertaken by him.